Please Note:

Unfortunately we cannot pro-rate tuition prices. The existing rates apply for either programs registered by package or individual class prices. We make every effort to keep our class tuition accessible, affordable and fair to all students and their families. Thank you for your understanding.

Payment and registration due prior to all classes.

Please note: Once registration has been received should the student, for whatever reason be unable to attend, withdraw, be excused or be absent, there will be no refunds. Credit may be applied toward another class, party, workshop or gift certificate.

Please dress your child for a mess! Art is always fun and sometimes messy. Art materials can and do stain clothing

Please note that Art with Amy is not a child care service licensed by the Department of Early Education and Care or any other state agency. All children must register for a specific class and must leave the studio upon completing the class.
